RETURNING BODY OF 1ST COUNTIAN SLAIN IN KOREA

The first Adams county soldier killed in the Korean war will be the first to be returned to the county for reburial here, the Department of Defense announced today.

Pvt. William M. Baumgardner, husband of Mrs. Florence Baumgardner, Baltimore street, and son of Mrs. Sarah E. Baumgardner, Fairfield R. 1, is among 54 Americans who lost their lives fighting in Korea being returned to the U. S. aboard the Woodstock Victory.

Ship Due April 7
The ship is expected to arrive at the San Francisco Port of Embarkation on April 7 and the body will be sent here accompanied by an escort. It was not known immediately when the interment will take place here. Gettysburg National Cemetery Superintendent Vernon F. Lunt said that ordinarily it takes about a week for the bodies to arrive in New York from the west coast. He receives notification then from New York, he said, and a 14-day period for notification of next of kin must expire between that time and the burial here.

Born on the small farm where his mother lives, on September 19, 1906, Private Baumgardner attended school for a short time and then went to work as a handyman, painter and carpenter in Fairfield, Gettysburg and elsewhere in Adams county. He served in the army prior to World War II and then re-enlisted when that war began. He went to Japan on July 4, 1949.

Father Of Seven
His death occurred in Korea on July 12 during the fighting there. His family had previously been notified that burial was going to take place in Japan, and it is not known whether he was buried there, or whether the body was held for the local interment now planned.

Father of seven children, Pvt. Baumgardner was first married to Clarabelle Lauer, who died 11 years ago. His second wife, Mrs. Florence Shultz Baumgardner, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Shultz, Fairfield.

His oldest son, Paul Baumgardner, will graduate this June from Pennsylvania State college and at that time will receive a commission as ensign in the U. S. Navy.

KIME TALKS AT CONFERENCE OF SENIOR CLUBS

Kime was one of two club presidents from Pennsylvania selected to represent the state in talks on "Program Activities That Have Worked." He spoke on a recent district folk festival sponsored by the Adams county group.

Elaine Serfass, a student at Gettysburg college who last year was an exchange student to Germany, took part in a panel discussion with other exchange students on conditions in other countries and the relationship between the U. S. and Europe.

Named To Committee

Myles E. Starner, Aspers, a past president of the Adams county Senior Extension club, was named to a committee to write a summary of the events.

Also attending the meeting from Adams county were Miss Teresa Murren, Hanover R. 4, of the county extension group, and Miss Mary Jane Mickey, county home economics extension representative.

Two hundred and eighty-six delegates from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, as well as representatives from the New England states, Maryland and Virginia were present for the conference, the first of its kind ever held by the senior extension group.

Representatives of the state colleges in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York as well as officials of the U. S. Department of Agriculture met with the senior extension delegates for the convention.

BREAK GROUND FOR NEW CHURCH HERE ON SUNDAY

Ground breaking exercises for the new Gettysburg Church of the Brethren were conducted Sunday morning at the site two miles north of here on the Biglerville road, south of Keckler's hill.

The oldest member of the church, Rev. B. P. Lightner, 92, and one of the youngest members, three-year-old Ronald Ogborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Ogborn, Gettysburg R. D., joined to turn the first shovel of ground for the basement of the $110,000 church.

Mr. Lightner noted during the ceremony that he was one of those who took part in the moving of the church from its prior location south of Gettysburg to the present site on South Stratton street approximately half a century ago.

The Rev. S. C. Godfrey, Red Lion, representing South District Ministerial board, conducted the service at the ground breaking. A short service was held prior to that event at the present church on South Stratton street.

Two German students, George Seifert, spending a year with a farmer on Gettysburg R. D. and Isolde Mueller, spending a year in Biglerville, also took part in the ground breaking exercises. The Church of the Brethren began in Germany.

The Rev. Robert Knechel, pastor of the church, based his seven-minute sermon on the statements to Solomon, when building the Jewish temple, to "be of good courage" and "see the work through."

Approximately 200 were present for the ground breaking exercises.

The new stone church will be constructed within the next 12 to 18 months.

CARS COLLIDE IN TOWN ALLEY

Automobiles of James Melvin Pitttuff, Gettysburg R. 3, and Patrick J. Wilkinson, 46 West Middle street, collided at the intersection of the American Legion and court house alleys at 8:15 o'clock this morning, damaging both cars and a storage shed, according to a borough police report.

Police said no one was injured. Damage to Pitttuff's car was placed at $150, and to the Wilkinson car at $85. A storage shed used by the R. W. Wentz and Sons furniture store had $75 damage, police said.

An automobile operated by Luther Topper, Gettysburg R. 3, struck a car driven by Pearl A. Conway, 48 South Beaver street, York, at 12:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at West Middle and West streets, according to another borough police report.

Topper was traveling east on West Middle street and Mrs. Conway was emerging from West street, traveling south. Topper swung to the left in an attempt to avoid the Conway car, but the latter stopped in his path and he struck the center of the right side of the Conway car, police said.

No one was injured. Damage to the Conway car was estimated at $150 and to the Topper car at $50.

TANK OF FUEL BOOSTS FINE OF TRUCKER HERE

A tank load of gasoline meant the difference between a $25 fine and a fine of $50, plus the costs, to Anthony Bursick, Bloomfield, Pa., truck driver, early this morning.

Bursick was one of six truckers charged Sunday afternoon, Sunday night and early this morning by state police of the Gettysburg substation, with carrying loads in excess of the legal limits prescribed by the Pennsylvania motor code. He won't have to pay his $50 fine and costs immediately however. A ten-day notice will be sent to him by Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.

Bursick told police and Squire Snyder that he had already paid a fine of $25 and costs before reaching Gettysburg. He was charged with being five per cent over the limit. He said he loaded up with 150 gallons which put him over the ten per cent limit.

Others Arrested
Others arrested by state police and charged before Squire Snyder were:

Gordon Lewis Dillon, Batavia, N. Y., $25 and costs; Chlan B. Burnett, Norfolk, Va., $50 and costs; Frank Stillman Everette, Winter Haven, Fla., $25 and costs; Boyd O'Neil Curt, Williamsfield, Ohio, $50 and costs and Robert Paul Bess, Hickory, N. C., $50 and costs.

Author Writes Of Monks In County

How the Trappist monks came to Adams county is related in the book "The Waters of Siloe" written by Thomas Merton, Trappist monk at the monastery of Our Lady of Gethsemane, Kentucky. Merton tells of the Trappists coming to the Pigeon hills, locating it as "near Gettysburg," and establishing a community there. Later the Sullivan fathers took over the land from the Trappists and established a school there. When the school was closed students attended Mount Saint Mary's at Emmitsburg.

Senate Refuses To Ban Foot Soldiers Under 20 In Europe

Washington, April 2 (P) — The Senate voted down today a proposal to ban the sending of U. S. foot soldiers under age 20 to serve in Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's North Atlantic defense force. The vote was 62 to 27.

It was the first ballot taken in connection with the troops-for-Europe issue.

Senator Case (R-S.D.) proposed to bar use of foot soldiers under age 20. Case offered that as an amendment to a resolution which would endorse the administration's plans to dispatch four more divisions — about 100,000 men — to join the two already in Europe and ticketed for Eisenhower's command.

The Senate met two hours earlier than usual in an effort to come to a final decision on the troops-for-Europe issue after weeks of debate.

Two separate resolutions were before it. Both would endorse the administration's program. One would

He suffered lacerations of the scalp and brush burns, state police of the Gettysburg substation, who investigated the accident, said.

FIREMEN WILL VOTE APRIL 11TH ON NEW TRUCK

The Gettysburg Fire company postponed until its next regular meeting, Wednesday evening, April 11, action on the purchase of a new fire truck, following a demonstration of a Mack truck brought here Saturday afternoon from Palmyra, Pa.

This decision was taken to give a larger proportion of the fire company membership an opportunity to vote. Approximately 50 of the 125 members of the company witnessed the demonstration, and met afterward at the engine house, where a special meeting had been scheduled to act on the purchase of a fire truck.

Secure New Price
The Palmyra pumper was a Mack 750-gallon truck, whereas specifications on which prices were submitted to the Gettysburg apparatus committee on March 13 called for a 500-gallon pumper. At the request of fire company officials, a representative of the Mack company submitted a price on a 750-gallon pumper, the price to remain in effect at least until after the fire company meeting.

The Mack representative quoted a price of $15,764.50 for the 750-gallon pumper, $1,418.50 more than its price of $14,346 for a 500-gallon pumper, and $96 more than the price quoted by American LaFrance, $15,668.50, for a 500-gallon job. The LaFrance price for a 750-gallon pumper is $16,418.50, or $654 more than the Mack 750-gallon pumper. The Mack company guaranteed delivery within 120 working days.

Here And There News Collected At Random

Two of the problems confronting the newly organized Retail Merchants Association are holiday observances and hours of closing, including the Thursday afternoon holiday now in effect in many stores.

Many suggestions have been advanced during recent months by a number of merchants but no coordinated effort has been advanced, until now, to determine a definite policy. The following suggestions (not ours) have been suggested to your reporter.

Close Monday morning instead of Thursday afternoon.

Open stores Monday evenings. Keep stores open each week-day and Friday and Saturday evenings; grant half-holiday to clerks each week; alternate days for holidays.

The Friday evening opening seemed to be the most popular suggestion, that is, it was advanced by several merchants. "Friday is payday for many businesses," one merchant said, "and considerable shopping would be done Friday evening if our places of business were open. It would also relieve congested Saturday shopping and permit earlier closing Saturday night."

Daylight saving time goes into effect at 2 o'clock Sunday morning, April 29, and continues until 2 a.m. Sunday, September 30.

MARCH NEAR NORMAL BUT IT LACKED SNOW

March turned in a weather record that was very close to normal in all respects except that it recorded no snow at Gettysburg and snow-free Marches here are in the minority in the last half century.

There were several inches of snow in northern and western parts of the county last month and Gettysburg missed a heavy snowfall by a few degrees of temperature that caused the precipitation to fall in the form of rain rather than snow.

Total rainfall last month was 3.23 inches—and normal for the month here is 3.33 inches.

Ten Days Of Rain

The month's average temperature was 40 degrees—and normal March temperature here is 40.5 degrees. Extreme temperatures for the month were a high of 63 degrees on the last day of the month and a low of 21 degrees on the 27th. There were high winds, sleet and fog at various times during the month. The heaviest rainfall occurred the night of March 19 and totaled 1.42 inches with the temperatures close to the freezing mark. There were 10 days last month when measurable amounts of rain fell.

The Arendtsville weather station report shows an average temperature last month of 39.19 degrees and rainfall that totaled 3.99 inches bringing the year's accumulation to 11.33 for the first three months. That station reported a low of 19 degrees on the 26th.

Average temperatures at Arendtsville were 79 degrees below normal but 4.42 degrees above the average for March of last year. Rainfall last month was 0.59 inches below normal and the accumulation to date is 2.58 inches above normal. Compared to March of last year, last month was 0.60 inches lower on rainfall.

Little Action In Korea; Reds Are Preparing For Big Drive

Tokyo, April 2 (P)—Allied tank-infantry patrols stabbed across the 38th parallel into Red Korea "several" times yesterday and today.

Presumably all pulled back to main allied lines after short periods north of the pre-war boundary between North and South Korea.

AP Correspondent John Randolph reported from the western front that the border crossing "had no special significance." They were part of the routine patrolling constantly being carried out along the front.

Main allied interest was focused north of 38 on the central front. There the Communists are massing troops and equipment for a probable spring offensive.

Reds Are "Dug In"

Randolph said the Communist defenses north of 38 were a network of trenches, log pillboxes, rifle pits and dugouts.

New Chinese tactics have delayed allied infantry assaults on Red hill positions. In the past the Reds usually waited on their hilltop crests for the Allies to hit them. They suffered heavily from artillery and air attacks.

Now they wait on the reverse side of the slopes and man their trenches only at the last moment. By then the Allied infantry is too near the lines to receive close artillery support.

Red Defense Tightens

One Allied tank-infantry patrol which stabbed across 38 Monday on the west central front hit stiff Communist resistance one and a half miles north of the border and withdrew.

A contingent of 29 young men, which included 13 Gettysburg college students, went to New Cumberland at 7:30 o'clock this morning by special bus for their pre-induction physical examinations, Local Selective Board No. 1 announced.

The college students were transfers from other draft boards, located in New York, New Jersey and elsewhere in Pennsylvania.

Fifteen will go to New Cumberland at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning for induction into the armed services. Two will be men whose postponements have expired and one is a volunteer.

other Allied units to the 38th parallel. Later it learned the sign was placed a mile north of the pre-war boundary between North and South Korea.

This crossing was in the vicinity of Songdang. A U.S. Eighth Army communique said an enemy platoon was engaged and dispersed.

Two American tank forces crossed 38 Saturday. One pushed to the fork of the Sinechon and Hantan rivers. A smaller group crossed northeast of Chango. Both withdrew.

On the central front, south of the reported Communist buildup, troops of a U.S. division were stopped three miles short of 38 by heavy Communist fire.

The Reds, entrenched on a formidable hill north of Chunchon, threw mortar, artillery and machinegun fire at the doughboys who sloped through a valley and up a slope toward the Communist position.

The Allied troops were supported by artillery and air attacks but failed to dislodge the Reds. As the afternoon waned they withdrew for the night.

Infantry patrols cautiously led the way as the U.N. ground forces moved in force to within half a mile of 38 across the western and central fronts. The Reds hit them with heavy mortar and machinegun fire.

YOUTH IS HELD FOR GRAND JURY

A 20-year-old youth was returned to the York county jail Friday to await action by the August grand jury following a hearing before Alderman H. Gellard Pickes, York, on three charges of stealing a truck and paint equipment owned by the Keystone Sign company.

The charges brought against James P. Feathers, York, are: Burglary, larceny and operating a motor vehicle with out the knowledge and consent of the owner.

Feathers admitted forcing entrance to the company building about 6 p.m. last Tuesday, taking the truck and abandoning it on the Lincoln highway just east of Gettysburg. A 40-foot ladder on a rack on top of the truck was left in an alley in Waynesboro, the youth said.

He denied, however, taking a second ladder, two transformers, and a quantity of paint and brushes, which Paul Harvey, president of Keystone Sign company, has charged him with stealing. The missing articles are valued at nearly $200.

GRANGE LEADS IN PICKS FOR ALL-TIME TEAM

New Brunswick, N. J., April 2 (AP)—Harold (Red) Grange, the "Galloping Ghost" of Illinois and perhaps the greatest runner in history, was an almost unanimous choice today for one of the halfback positions on the All-Time All-American Football team.

This unprecedented team is being chosen by the Associated Press in a nationwide poll of newspaper and radio sports editors and in conjunction with the National Football Hall of Fame. It is the first time in history that such a lineup of gridiron immortals has been assembled on such a broad and representative scale.

Men on the first three teams are nominated for consideration by the honors court of the Hall of Fame, a $5,000,000 shrine planned at Rutgers university. This is where the first college football game was played between Rutgers and Princeton in 1869.

No selection has been made yet to the Hall of Fame but it is probable players chosen on these Associated Press teams will be among the early honorees in the shrine.

Grange, the gazelle-footed red-head with the phantom hips, rolled up the largest point total of all the greats figuring in the coast-to-coast balloting.

Leads Thorpe, Gipp
The Illinois star received 704 points, high in the poll, outdoing such standouts as Jim Thorpe, the old Carlisle Indian; Notre Dame's George Gipp and Johnny Lujack; Michigan's Tom Harmon and Willie Heston and Chicago's Jay Berwanger.

More than 100 sports editors participated in the poll but the final returns represent thousands of opinions.

The "Galloping Ghost" was an obvious choice. He was the epitome of gridiron greatness in the era of the golden twenties when Jack Demsey ruled fistic ranks and Bobby Jones was the king of golf.

Grange was no overnight sensation. He entered Illinois in 1922 with a scrap-book stuffed with race notices from Wheaton, Ill., where as a high school halfback, he averaged five touchdowns a game.

Before he had finished college he had hung up a staggering list of records. In 20 games—he missed four because of injuries—he had a three-year record of 31 touchdowns, 3,637 yards rushing and 643 yards passing when the air game was still young. He drew 738,555 spectators to home games.

When Grange left college and turned professional he received $50,000 for his first game with the Chicago Bears December 6, 1925. He spent 13 years as professional football coach and promoter before turning to his present insurance and sporting goods business in Chicago.

Draft Bill Fight Looms In House

Washington, April 2 (AP) — The returns today from a 10-day Easter recess to start what may develop into a knockdown fight over lowering the draft age and providing for universal military training.

The entire week has been set aside for debate on a bill to lower the draft age from 19 to 18½, increase the period of compulsory military service, and set up the machinery for UMT. Formal debate starts tomorrow. Not until next week, however, will the crucial voting stage be reached.

The present draft law expires on July 9. The Senate has passed a bill to extend it indefinitely, to lower the induction age from 10 to 18, to increase the period of service from 21 to 24 months and to provide for a universal military training program training program when the need for a service draft ends.

The bill before the House, besides lowering the induction age to 18½ years, would extend the service period to 26 months and lay the groundwork for UMT when inductions end.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, April 2 (AP) — Back in 1925, Port Robertson was one of the Oklahoma university wrestlers whom Coach Paul Keen loaded into a ratty model-T to go to Bethlehem, Pa., for the NCAA tournament.

It took them nine days for the round trip and they did very well to finish second after such strenuous travel. . . . This spring, Robertson, now Sooner coach, loaded his wrestlers into two university-owned airplanes, moaning because two boys had to use commercial planes, and flew to Bethlehem in seven hours. His team won the NCAA title. . . . Naturally, Port is enthusiastic, though it seems odd in a sport where falls are so important. . . . Another Oklahoma coach, Joe Glander, recently heard of a South African swimmer who wanted to go to school at O. U.

Joe was eager too, until he learned that the kid's passage would cost $600. . . . Then Track Coach John Jacobs suggested: "Why don't you grease him and have him swim over?"

G-BURG 5TH IN TEAM SCORING

Gettysburg college's basketball team finished fifth in high scoring averages among the nation's major basketball teams according to figures released by the National Collegiate Athletic Association Service bureau.

In establishing a record of 15 wins against seven losses, the Bluebirds tallied 1,623 points for an average of 73.8 per game.

Cincinnati topped the field with an average of 77 points for 22 games. Other top flight scoring teams include North Carolina State, 76.3; Kentucky, 74.7; Virginia Tech, 74.1; Gettysburg, 73.8; West Kentucky State, 73.6; West Virginia, 73.5; Bradley, 73.4; Columbia, 72.9; Louisville, 72.7. Bradley's record does not include tournament games of March 30 and 31.

Texas A. and M. was the best defensive team with a mark of 44 points.

Jamaica Opens Racing Season

New York, April 2 (AP) — Metropolitan racing fans, who are supposed to have been saving their money since New York tracks closed last Nov. 15, came out of hibernation today and headed for Jamaica.

The popular track opened a 36-day meeting with 15 crack sprinters competing in the $25,000-added Paumonok handicap over the six furlong route.

Jamaica, which annually has the honor of opening the state's 196-day racing season, is expected to entertain a crowd of around 40,000, depending on the weather. Some showers have been forecast.

Most of the 15 horses entered for the Paumonok have been active in Florida during the winter. Probable favoritism in the race lies between Belair stud's Hypthesis, winner of five out of seven Florida starts, and Henry Hecht's The Pincher, which topped two of three starts at Hialeah. In his last time out, The Pincher defeated Hypthesis. Both have 119 pounds today. Gustave Ring's jam session, 113, is coupled with The Pincher as an entry.

Tehran, Iran, April 2 (AP) — Tehran defeated Penn State's soccer team, 5 to 0, yesterday after a crowd of 5,000. The game had been postponed from last Friday because of rain.

The Nile and Amazon rivers are each about 4,000 miles long.

ALLENTOWN HIGH TRIPS FARRELL FOR 5TH TITLE

Philadelphia, April 2 (AP) — Allentown's Canaries are back on the top perch of Pennsylvania schoolboy basketball.

The Canaries, who dominated the state high school basketball picture from 1945 to 1947 only to be forced to give up two of their titles due to an ineligible player ruling, defeated Farrell's western contenders, 66 to 55, Saturday night at the Penn palmetto before 8,500.

And they did it with a team that had lost five of its regular season games while playing under a new coach—Milo Sowards, who succeeded Birney Crum.

It was the climax of a three-year uphill fight from a PIAA suspension and came in their first year of returning to organized league play. For the past two years Allentown campaigned as an independent before rejoining the East Penn conference.

The victory—surprisingly easy after a mid-way in the second period—was Allentown's fifth in as many title game appearances. They previously won the honors in 1935, 1945, 1946 and 1947, although the last two titles were vacated. Farrell lost its only other title game to Lower Merion, 29-28, in 1943.

Snyder, Cain Star

Captain Bill Snyder, a six-foot, two-inch senior center, and Eddie Cain, a six-one senior guard, paced the Canaries with 20 and 16 points, respectively. Cain made three successive field goals in the dying minutes of the first half to give Allentown a 29 to 24 half-time advantage.

Farrell started fast with Julius McCoy, its six-two hook-shot ace, scoring 10 points in the opening period. But Coach Eddie McCluskey's western champions came rattled in the second period and failed to get the ball into McCoy. The Settlers made only two field goals in the second period—their low spot of the game. McCoy, who got only six shots in the final half, collected 18 points for the game.

In winning the east's 21st triumph in the 32nd annual East-West Public School playoff, Allentown set a new scoring record of 66 points—six better than the two-year old record of Alliquippa. The victory also ended a two-year reign of western teams as state champions. Allentown succeeded Homestead as the Class A titlist.

Farrell also broke a record. The Steelers scored more points than any previous losing team as they passed the mark of 51 points made by York in losing to Alliquippa in 1949. The combined total of 121 points was 10 better than the Alliquippa-York record.

As Farrell faded in the second period of the title game, the Canaries took over almost complete mastery of the rebounds and that seemed to be the turning point in the heated contest.

Catholic Game Tonight

Allentown joins Kutztown of Class 8 and Fredonia of Class C as champions of the PIAA's three enrollment divisions.

Meanwhile, the final schoolboy basketball game of the 1951 season takes place tonight in Johnstown as unbeaten Johnstown Catholic challenges Reading Central Catholic for the Class A title of the Pennsylvania Catholic Interscholastic Athletic association.

Phoenix, Ariz., April 2 (AP) — They managed to keep rookie Mickey Mantle out of the New York Yankees lineup just two days because of a strained right wrist.

The sensational 19-year-old outfielder was back in action in right field in yesterday's 6-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates. His three singles in four times at bat bounced two runs across the plate.

Manager Casey Stengel said he was going to move the youngster around to all three outfield spots to get him used to them. Stengel also lopped off pitcher Ernie Nevil and outfielder Hank Workman to Kansas City and pitcher Wally Hood and infielder Jim Briedeweser to San Francisco.

St. Petersburg, Fla., April 2 (AP) — There was a little to cheer about and a little to brood about in the New York Giant's camp today.

On the good news side was the 16-hit, 12-8 victory the Durocherins scored over the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday—and just when the Giants were beginning to think that maybe they simply couldn't hit.

But Sal Maglie attempted to go the route for the first time this spring and was shelved for eight hits and six runs in the five innings he toiled—a disappointing performance.

Washington, April 2 (AP) — Two soldier brothers have been killed on the same day and apparently in the same action in Korea.

The Army said today Melvin and John Barnett of Batesville, Ark., were killed in action on March 16. There were no details in the initial report received here, but the fact that both boys were in the same regiment of the 1st Cavalry Division indicated they died in the same engagement.

Army spokesmen here said they believed this was the first instance in a number of cities will be included in the book, the publishing house said.

Prober To Write Book On Crime

New York, April 2 (AP) — The story of the Senate Crime Investigating committee will be told in a book by the chairman, Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.).

Doubleday and Company, Inc., announced last night that the book, titled "Crime in America," will be published July 12.

High points of committee hearings in a number of cities will be included in the book, the publishing house said.

Training Camp Briefs

Phoenix, Ariz., April 2 (AP) — Rookie pitcher Bob Friend was just about the happiest member of the Pittsburgh Pirate squad which left here for Houston, Tex., on the long trip home to open the season.

From all indications Friend, a 20-year-old bonus pitcher who used to hurl for Purdue university, will stick with the Pirates after the season opens. Manager Billy Meyer admits he's impressed with what Friend has shown thus far. Umpire Dusty Boggess, who worked in one game behind the plate when Friend was pitching against the Cleveland Indians, commented:

"Every ball that boy threw did something. No two pitches were in the same spot. His fast ball was 'live' and his curve was breaking sharp."

West Palm Beach, Fla., April 2 (AP) — The Philadelphia Athletics take a day off from exhibition baseball today to break camp. A flu-crippled squad heads for Atlanta on the first stage of the trip north. The A's play the Atlanta Crackers tomorrow, then meet Birmingham, Ala., Wednesday.

The Mackmen practically threw away their last game here yesterday, handing the Baltimore Orioles six unearned runs in a 7-2 victory for the international leaguers. Four errors by the A's figured in the Baltimore scoring.

Clearwater, Fla., April 2 (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies fly to Miami today for two games with the Brooklyn Dodgers this afternoon and tomorrow. Then the 1950 National league champions will join the Brooks in the northward trek, with the first stops at Savannah, Ga., and Jacksonville, Fla.

A ninth inning home run by Cincinnati's Ted Kluszewski off Russ Meyer set the Phils down 2-0 yesterday in a tight pitching duel. It was the second straight loss for Eddie Sawyer's men and their eighth defeat in 20 exhibitions.

Tucson, Ariz., April 2 (AP) — The Cleveland Indians looked to two newly acquired 31-year-old veterans today to fill their need for reserve infield strength.

The New County Prison: We understand that the Sheriff and family will take possession of the new County Prison this week—it being completed so far as the residence of the Sheriff is concerned. Some part of the cell work is yet unfinished, owing to the illness of the contractor.

Married: On the 28th ult., by Rev. Adam Height, Mr. John Wank, to Miss Caroline Meals—both of Menallen township.

On the 27th ult., by the Rev. Mr. Rosenmiller, Mr. Wm. Feiser, to Miss Nancy Stoner—both of Littlestown.

On the 27th ult., by the Rev. J. Ulrich, Mr. Peter Gross to Miss Elizabeth Pink—both of this county.

On the 27th ult., by the same, Mr. William Coulson, to Miss Elizabeth Stoner, of East Berlin—both of this county.

The German Reformed Congregation of this place are now engaged in removing the old church in which they have worshipped for many years, with the view to the erection of a new one of more modern style. Mr. John Christman is the contractor.

The Roman Catholic congregation in Gettysburg, have it also in contemplation to erect a new church in a more central part of town—finding the one in Washington street to be too small, and inconvenient of access.

Painful Event: On Tuesday morning, Mr. Hugh Black, a very respectable citizen of Cumberland township, north of Gettysburg, put an end to his existence by cutting his throat with a pocket knife. He had been ploughing in one of his fields, but after ploughing a round or two, he went into a fence corner near and committed the melancholy act—His mind had been somewhat disordered for some time, which no doubt led to this unfortunate event.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Dissolution: We would call attention to the dissolution of the partnership of Stover and Wible, butchers. The business will be carried on by Geo. B. Stover, at the old stand on Chambersburg Street, near the Eagle Hotel.

Emigrants: Mr. Daniel Sell and family, of Union township, Mr. John Artner and family, and Messrs. Henry Wise and Smith, of Mountpleasant township, started west on Monday, the 27th ult. It is their intention to locate in Newton county, Indiana.

Music: On Friday evening, the streets of our town were enlivened by the performance of the Gettysburg Brass Band. The gentlemen connected with the organization know how to "blow their horns," and in addition they are to be commended for their public spirit, frequently treating our citizens to free entertainment. We hope they will continue the organization, as our town ought to have a first-class band, and they have the material to become one.

Town Council: The Burgess and Town Council, chosen at the recent election, organized on Monday. Col. C. H. Buehler qualified as Burgess, and the Town Council organized by electing Hon. David Wills, President; C. A. Boyer, Treasurer, and Jacob Aughinbaugh, Clerk. The following gentlemen constitute the new council: Hon. David Wills and Messrs. S. K. Foulk, Hugh D. Scott, Geo. H. TWO THINGS

A friend of mine was driving with the late Arthur Brisbane when Brisbane suddenly turned to him and said: "There are two things and only two things that are worth while in life—health and money." Brisbane was a brilliant writer of editorials that were read by millions each day, but some time before he died he lost his health and he left his money behind.

In that interesting little book called "Afterthoughts," by Logan Pearsall Smith, I came across this statement: "There are two things to aim at in life: First, to get what you want; and after that, to enjoy it. Only the wisest of mankind achieve the second."

None of us can place too high a premium upon health for it is one of the great essentials to success and happiness, but if one's health is sacrificed to gain one's objective, the enjoyment is all wiped out. Enjoyment in one's work is one of the things that stimulate and assure health. Without this enjoyment work would lose its meaning.

Henry Drummond called love the greatest thing in the world, and wrote a book about it that drew worldwide reading. Love touches everything that is beautiful. Next to love, and certainly allied to it, is selflessness. People who keep giving themselves away are the only ones who know the meaning of wealth. Without self-respect and self-confidence none of us would get very far happily. Nor could we go far with an uneasy conscience. The healthy mind has more to do with a healthy body than anything else. This mind of ours needs a constant dusting and sweeping out, as well as new arrangements. What a thing of wonder it is anyway!

Two things, I wonder what the two most valuable would be should people be asked to name them? I am sure that love would be one of them. Happiness would be another—but happiness is dependent upon so many other things. People who complain about having no happiness do not know that they do have it until they start giving it away.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Youth."

OUR SITTER PROBLEM
We had just two sitter problems in the days when they were small. With two quickly found solutions, as I frequently recall.

One was: "Could we take the children?" (not too often I admit)
And the other was: "Would either of the grandmas come to sit?"

This modern sitter problem was a care we didn't know. If we couldn't take the children we decided not to go. And if neither of the grandmas could come in and let us roam we forgot about the party and decided to stay home.

I'm old fashioned and I know it, and the sitting custom's new. But this trusting them to strangers was a thing we didn't do. I say: "Take the children with you, but, if not, then I suggest. If you must leave some one sitting, either grandma does it best."

Flowers In Front Yard Fit Mood Of Modern Home

Homes, like those who live in them, have personalities. Those built in traditional architectural styles are dignified, and formal in appearance. Landscape architects used to tell us that planting in the front yards of these homes should be in harmony with this dignity. If planting could be compared to clothing, then the house should face the public in formal attire.

This sort of thinking put an end to flower beds in front yards. They were altogether too gay for their sedate background. Would you dress for the street, as for a garden party, or tennis game? Then grow your flowers in the back yard, where you could wear sports clothes, and romp around.

For front yards the fashion developed of planting evergreens around the high foundations which then prevailed, and this practice spread through the country, where formerly evergreens had usually been seen only in cemeteries.

A benefit of this fashion was that it made us familiar with the variety and beauty of evergreens, which are lovely in form and color, and green the year around, deserving of use in gardens wherever they are located.

But times change, and ideas with them. Traditional architectural styles have given way to functional design; millions of new homes have now been built without a thought of tradition. The attached garage, picture windows, breezeway, and low spreading ranch house construction, produce a home unlike any traditional style since Babylon.

The principle on which modern architecture is based is that comfort and convenience in living are more important than a dignified, formal appearance to the passerby. The house you might say, takes off its frock coat and faces the world in a sports shirt, sometimes wearing shorts. What sort of front yard planting would be in harmony with that sort of atmosphere?

Surely, not the same formal, dignified treatment, that became commonplace in the last generation. Not a foundation planting for a house which has no visible foundation; not dignified sedateness, where the home expresses informality and comfort. Yet because fashions are often slow to change, many of these homes have been planted in an outmoded, unsuitable manner, or what is worse, have not been planted at all.

The solution of this problem which is rapidly being accepted, is the door-yard garden. This restores to the front yard the flower beds and the borders, which were there in the Victorian era.

Then, flowers were often used to work out elaborate designs in beds of geometric shapes. Modern door-yard gardens are as simple as possible in design, in order to center attention upon the beauty of the flowers. These are grouped in masses of one color, so arranged that each mass harmonizes with and sets off the others, and all provide a pleasing decoration for the house.

The garden illustrated is a simple arrangement of border plantings for a small house where the walk leads from the private driveway to the front door. Both house and lot will be made to seem larger by this arrangement.

Notes On Fruit Pollination

Millions of bushels of apples, pears, peaches, plums and cherries are lost from our orchards each year through lack of proper pollination. Of course, most commercial fruit growers know the importance of maintaining adequate cross-pollination, but too often the small grower and particularly the owner of but a few trees for family use overlooks this all-essential factor.

It is the consensus of experienced opinions that no variety of apple is sufficiently self-fertile to be dependably productive when planted alone. Despite the fact that several varieties bear partial crops under such conditions, the safer and by far the most profitable practice is to interplant all varieties of apples to insure a free exchange of pollen by bees to "set" a full crop of fruit.

Year of testing and research prove that no individual apple tree should be farther than 80 to 85 feet from a variety known to be a satisfactory pollinizer. This means that rows may consist of one variety to facilitate spraying and harvesting operations but that every third row should include varieties to insure general pollination.

Pollinators for Delicious may be the Grimes, Jonathan and McIntosh; for Grimes, Jonathan, Delicious and Steele Red. For Jonathan it is wise to interplant with Delicious and Steele Red. McIntosh should have Delicious, Wealthy and Jonathan near. Winesap, while its pollen is worthless to pollinate any other varieties, needs Grimes, Rome, Transparent or York near it. The editor will be glad to furnish interested readers a fairly complete list of other apple pollinating varieties.

As a generally applicable rule, sweet cherries will fail by themselves. It is a wise precaution to interplant sweet varieties with at least one or two sour cherries. The Tartarian or Republican is suitable in most cases. Many experienced growers use the Less trouble is encountered by peach growers in obtaining satisfactory pollination than growers of any other kinds of fruit. Yet, with peaches as with plums and cherries, considerable research is still needed to learn all the basic facts about pollination requirements among the numerous varieties.

FRANCO'S FOES IN EXILE ARE GETTING ACTIVE

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Lifting of the United Nations diplomatic ban on Franco Spain has had the effect of making the Generalissimo's Spanish Republican opponents more vocal.

The Republican "government in exile" had been working so quietly that it had been largely lost sight of through the years since Franco waged his successful revolution. The exiled regime, however, appears to be decidedly alive, as I have had impressed on me through meeting a very active member—General Jose Asensio, minister without portfolio, who is stationed in New York.

The general tells me the members of the Republican cabinet aren't all concentrated in one place, but are strategically scattered—four in Paris and the rest in widely separated stations. He himself is not only a minister but also is permanent observer with the United Nations. Of this latter task he remarked to me rather plaintively but with diplomatic reserve:

"Some Disappointments"

"Unfortunately some disappointments have been experienced in connection with the case of Spain."

He was, of course, referring to the lifting of the U.N. diplomatic boycott against Franco. The first time I met the general (who has been a reader of this column) he said:

"You believe Franco should be brought into the North Atlantic defensive pact, don't you?"

I replied in the affirmative, on the ground that this would greatly strengthen the alliance. I added, however, that I do not approve of any dictatorships, as I have made clear innumerable times in my articles. Then general grinned and we dropped the subject.

When Franco launched his rebellion in 1936, General Asensio took the field against him until made under secretary of the ministry of war. Finally in January of '39 he was appointed military attaché at the Spanish embassy in Washington, a post he held until Madrid surrendered two months later. Since then he has been a political refugee representing the republic in America.

Preserve Continuity

It seems passing strange that a "government in exile" should hang on so long and so doggedly, until you remember that ideologies die hard.

I asked General Asensio to define the precise function of the exiled government, and here are some of the points he made:

"Our task is to preserve legal continuity with the last government constitutionally elected on Spanish soil. Our government in exile is open to all Spanish Democratic forces on the sole conditions that the Republican institutions shall be preserved as these are the last expressions of the national will, and that the opportunity be given the Spanish people of choosing freely the system under which they wish to live and thus enjoy full privileges of universal suffrage."

2,000 ATTEND AURIOL DINNER

Washington, April 2 (AP)—An estimated 2,000 Washington notables, including President and Mrs. Truman, partook of French hospitality Friday night as guests of President Vincent Auriol of France.

The reception followed a gold plate dinner at which Mr. Truman said this country "will never forget its friendship for France."

Declaring that the United States wants "peace in the world," Mr. Truman added:

"And to attain peace in the world, we want to raise that iron curtain, and make France, Britain, Belgium, Holland and Norway, and those countries who stayed with us through the fight, free and equal

GIVE TIPS ON PICKING BERRIES

Harry S. Stoner, Orrtanna R. D., C. H. Musselman company field man, recently was told that "people who prefer to pick strawberries with caps on them should have a dunce cap themselves."

Stoner received information on the preferences in Oregon picking when he contacted Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Greenwald, Gettysburg R. 4, who recently moved from Oregon, purchasing a 97-acre farm here.

The custom in the Oregon area, Mrs. Lovey Greenwald told Stoner, is to combine the picking and capping operations so that the berries are delivered to the processors without caps. She claimed that both pickers and growers much prefer this method. Mrs. Greenwald added that it takes longer to pick strawberries with the caps on, while a quick twist of the wrist is all that is necessary to "decap" the strawberry and remove it from the vine simultaneously.

On the west coast, the Greenwalds had 40 acres of strawberries and noted that "pickers preferred to cap and pick at the same time, it means more berries for the pickers," he said.

Stoner said most of the local pickers have been harvesting strawberries with caps attached. Expanded operations in strawberries by the C. H. Musselman company has caused an increase in the local production of strawberries, with local production running up to four tons per acre. Last year's price was 20 cents per pound. No local prices per pound have been announced for this year.

Convict Girl Of Insulting Pope

Chieti, Italy, April 2 (AP)—Communist Deputy Laura Liaz planned today to appeal her conviction on a charge of insulting Pope Pius XII by declaring in a speech that his hands "are dripping with blood."

Before leaving for Rome, she filed notice of intention to appeal.

with the rest of mankind in the world, so that they will not suffer from fear of being overrun once more in another generation."

Long before the dinner was over hundreds of fashionably dressed women and men in white tie and tails waited in line in front of the French embassy for the doors to open for the reception.

The presidents of the U. S., and France stood in a receiving line to shake hands with the arriving guests.

RED ATTACK WOULD LIFT BOMB BARRIERS

Washington, April 2 (AP) — Senator McMahon (D-Conn.) said Saturday there won't be any legal barriers to use of the atomic bomb if Russia starts a war.

Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) posed in the Senate on Friday the question of whether present law bars delivery of the bomb to the North Atlantic Pact force headed by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Hickenlooper said if the President can assign troops to an international army under Eisenhower, he can also assign military equipment.

"However, does he have the authority to give atomic bombs and to authorize their use to an international authority which is beyond the complete control of the United States?" the Iowa senator asked.

Contending that Eisenhower is "subject to the discipline and authority of an international council," Hickenlooper noted that under the law atomic weapons must remain "under and within the jurisdiction of the United States."

McMahon said there isn't any question that the bomb will be used in the event of war. But he added in a statement: "Obviously, if the act forbids the transfer of atomic weapons to foreign nations, then Sen. Hickenlooper raises a straw man in this issue since such transfer is itself forbidden by the act."

"The same military objective could be achieved by the use of atomic weapons at the order of the commander in chief by our own strategic air force which, as a practical matter, is the only group trained and equipped to use such a weapon."

The atomic warfare question arose as opposing sides in the Senate lined up their forces for the beginning of voting Monday on two troops resolutions that would put the Senate and Congress on record as approving the sending of four additional U.S. divisions to join the two in Europe assigned to Eisenhower's command. They would call on President Truman to get congressional approval of further troop assignments. But neither resolution would have the force of law.

Old Carvel Hall Damaged By Blaze

Annapolis, Md., April 2 (AP) — Flames streaked early Saturday through four floors of historic Carvel Hall, the famous old hostelry of this country's navy town.

One of the building's wings was badly damaged. Firemen had the blaze under control after four hours. Damage was not estimated.

All the guests walked safely from the burning structure. So did a hundred Annapolis party-goers who gathered there for a dance earlier in the evening.

The blaze started from an unknown cause at 11 p.m. in the kitchen wing of the four-story hotel in the heart of an old Annapolis residential section.

Say Armed Rebels 'Chute Into Albania'

London, April 2 (AP) — Yugoslavia said Saturday armed rebels are being parachuted into Albania to fight against the Kremlin-controlled regime of Premier Enver Hoxha.

To combat the apparently growing unrest in the small Balkan Soviet satellite nation, Russia reportedly has sent about a dozen Mig jet fighter planes to Albania.

Yugoslavia also declared that the Albanian rebel campaign apparently is being directed by "reactionary" Albanians now living in Italy. There was no immediate comment from Albanian exiles in Italy.

Besides parachutists Yugoslavia said planes are showering anti-Communist leaflets over Albanian cities and towns.

TRAINED REDS HELD SWAY AT STUDENT MEET

By VERN HAUGLAND

Washington, April 2 (AP) — Two American educators who attended a Communist-dominated student conference in Czechoslovakia as observers say it showed American students ill-equipped to meet trained Communists in rough and tumble debate.

A method frequently used by Communists to capture a labor union or other organization is to over-ride opposition at meetings through sheer persistence and deft use of parliamentary procedure.

The observers say the conference last August brought to light "some shortcomings in the preparation of American students for their international responsibilities."

Non-Reds Withdrew

Eugene G. Schwartz, now a graduate student at New York university, and Robert L. West, now a college program adviser for CARE in New York city, represented the U.S. National Student association at the Second World Student Congress at Prague.

The Congress was sponsored by the International Union of Students, from which the U.S. association withdrew in 1948—because of the union's refusal to intervene on behalf of Prague students jailed or suspended in the Communist coup. Most other non-Communist groups later dropped out as the International Union continued to hew more closely to the foreign policy line of the Soviet Union.

Schwartz and West, writing in the semi-monthly publication of the U.S. Office of Education, say that the leadership at the Prague Congress—even disregarding the Soviet and eastern European delegates—was frankly marxist.

"Such major nations as India and Italy, for example, were represented by student organizations formed of alliances between Left-Wing Socialists and Communist elements," they write. Red delegates from North Korea were applauded by "all of the Latin American, Asian, African and Middle Eastern groups, as well as the Soviet bloc."

Western delegations throughout the eight days of the meeting were submitted to "persistent attacks and a barrage of abuse, frequently personal."

Things Of The Soil

to ask—Will a fruit tree that needs pollen from another tree bear any blooms? Faulty pollination is detected only in the fruit "set," not in the bloom crop. It is a characteristic of a poorly pollinated tree to drop its fruit in early June or a month to six weeks after the blossoming period.

Owners of but one or a few trees may correct this trouble by obtaining a liberal bouquet of blooms from a known pollinator and placing it in a container (with water to keep the blossoms fresh) during the peak of the bloom period when bees are active. Set near a sterile tree, the bouquet will supply enough pollen to safeguard the crop. Planting pollinating varieties nearby is the best permanent solution.

BABE BORN TO CRASH VICTIM

Baltimore, April 2 (AP)—An unnamed baby girl, born 10 minutes after her mother died from injuries in an automobile crash, clung to life for more than 12 hours before dying yesterday.

A doctor at South Baltimore General hospital, where the baby was delivered in an emergency operation Saturday night, said the infant could not overcome serious brain damage caused by the cutoff of oxygen for 20 to 30 minutes before her birth. It was three weeks premature.

The mother, Mrs. Alice Lepore of near Ferndale, Md., died almost immediately after her arrival at the hospital. The 33-year-old woman was pinned under her husband's car after it collided with another auto in Baltimore.

The driver of the other car, identified by police as Kenneth Rudolph of Baltimore, has been charged with drunken driving, speeding, failing to yield right-of-way at an intersection and causing Mrs. Lepore's death.

Rudolph was not hurt. Lepore suffered only minor injuries.

BOY, 16, ADMITS SHOOTING 3 OF HIS RELATIVES

Dover, N. J., April 2 (AP)—A 16-year-old boy has admitted slaying his bed-ridden uncle and two aunts here because he "had trouble getting out nights to see his girl friend," authorities said.

State police in Delaware said the boy, William A. Nickle, confessed the triple shooting yesterday and gave the motive.

New Jersey authorities left for Delaware to pick up the youth. Nickle was arrested at Pearson's Corner, Del., yesterday a few hours after neighbors found the bodies of Charles Brown, 49, an incurable invalid; his wife, Mary, 42, and Brown's sister, Mrs. Myrtle Brown, 45, who had been helping care for him.

Dover Police Chief John J. Valley said the boy fled from the scene of the shootings late Saturday night in his uncle's car and headed for Delaware to visit his parents.

Had Previous Trouble
Various described as quiet and unassuming by neighbors and as a troublemaker by authorities, young Nickle had been living with his uncle here for the past two years after getting into difficulties with juvenile authorities in Delaware.

Valley said the boy had almost everything he wanted, including a bicycle and a movie projector, but brooded over being scolded for taking his uncle's car. He took it frequently without permission, Valley said, even though he wasn't old enough to have a license.

Two days ago, Valley said, Nickle traded the movie projector for a .22-caliber rifle he said he wanted to use for squirrel hunting. Delaware state police said the boy told them he first shot Myrtle Brown in the back of the head with the rifle as she sat reading in an armchair, and then shot his uncle as he slept in a nearby bedroom. An autopsy revealed that Brown, a cancer victim, had only a few weeks to live.

Waits for Aunt
Nickle then waited for his Aunt Mary, a telephone operator, to come home from work. As she walked in the door, Delaware officers said, Nickle shot her in the face and pumped another bullet into her stomach.

After locking the front door of the modest frame house, Valley added, the boy drove his uncle's auto to his parents' home in Hartley, Del., near Dover. The parents became suspicious and notified police there who arrested him in nearby Pearson's Corner where he had gone to visit other relatives.

Pittsburgh, April 2 (AP)—Most of the nation's coal mines are idle today as miners pay tribute to the man who won them a shorter working day. Diggers in 27 bituminous (soft coal) producing states scheduled parades and speaking programs to celebrate "John Mitchell Day." Mitchell, one of the early presidents of the United Mine Workers, is credited with winning an eight-hour working day.

COUPLE IS WED IN EMMITSBURG

Miss Lois Hewitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hewitt, Emmitsburg, R. 3, and Stephen Baker, son of Mrs. Mary Baker, Sharon, Pa., were united in marriage on Saturday morning at a nuptial mass at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Emmitsburg. The double ring ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. Francis Saubie.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Eugene Hardman, wore a pink and black accessories and carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid.

For her maid of honor and only attendant the bride chose Miss Sandra Hall, Orzanna, a former classmate, who wore a dark blue and white dress, with pink and black accessories and pink rosebud corsage.

The best man was James P. Smith and the ushers were Robert D. Rodgers and Robert E. Dionne, all of Camp Detrick, Md. The altar boys who served the mass were Michael Boyle and Charles Baker.

The main altar of the church was decorated with pink, white and yellow snapdragons. The traditional wedding marches were played by the church organist and the soloists were Mrs. George Brown and Guy A. Baker, Jr.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Alma Hardman, wore black with black accessories and the groom's mother wore grey with black accessories and both wore red rosebud corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the White House inn for approximately 100 relatives and friends.

The bride is a graduate of St. Joseph's high school class of '50 and is employed as secretary to Attorney Edward D. Storm. The groom is a petty officer of the U. S. Navy and is stationed at Camp Detrick, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker left after the reception on a honeymoon through Virginia and upon their return will reside in Frederick.

Washington, April 2 (AP) — The Senate Banking committee says many defense plants and some communities built during World War II will be discarded because of radical changes in sizes and designs of modern weapons.

"None of our existing plants, either old or relatively new, are structurally capable of handling efficiently the greatly increased size and weight of many of our new defense products," the committee said yesterday in a 91-page report to the Senate.

Murphy Opposes Police In Union

New York, April 2 (AP) — Police Commissioner Thomas F. Murphy has moved to block attempts to organize New York city's policemen into the CIO Transport Workers Union.

Murphy broke his silence yesterday on the unionization efforts by TWU President Michael J. Quill. Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri has refrained from comment on the issue.

"I submit that you will gain nothing (by being unionized), and in the bargain it will cost you money and maybe your jobs," Murphy told 1,700 members of the department's St. George association, an Episcopal group, at a communion breakfast.

ANTI-RELIGION DRIVE OF REDS FAILING AGAIN

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Just over a year ago the Soviet "Journal of Science and Life" launched an all-out propaganda drive against religion, and for education of the masses in militant Atheism, as vital to the spread of communism.

Reporting on the results of the first 12 months work, "Science and Life" now calls for an expansion of the crusade as "very much needed." Apparently the anti-religious campaign is up against a tough proposition.

That is as would be expected. The vast majority of the world's peoples, both civilized and primitives, believe in a god or gods. He is indeed an optimist who thinks that spiritual beliefs which have existed since time began can be killed.

Oppose All Religions

The Soviet drive isn't aimed at any particular religion, but at all of them. For example, "Jana Ittifa" (Union of Moslem people of Russia) has appealed to both the United Nations and the Pakistan government for help, saying that Moslems of the Soviet north Caucasus are being persecuted. The appeal presumably was made to Pakistan because the population of that state is chiefly Moslem.

And why should bolshevism find it necessary to try to destroy religion? Can't this Bolshevist ideology work with religion?

The answer is that the tenets of totalitarian bolshevism are contrary to the beliefs of every religion on earth. Bolshevism provides for slave states, and is employing aggression in the conduct of its world revolution for the spread of communism.

Bolshevism isn't the first to recognize that totalitarian dictatorship and religion don't mix. Adolf Hitler early saw that if he was to succeed in his devilish ambitions he must first kill off religious opposition.

Hitler Also Failed

Right from the start of his reign he too campaigned against religion. He even went to the extreme of having himself advertised as a messiah, and there were some who gave lip service to this designation.

However, Hitler couldn't kill religion, and the Bolsheviks can't kill it. The Moscow government, taking cognizance of the signs, is favoring persuasion rather than compulsion. The Soviet constitution provides freedom of worship, and millions of devout Russians still are practicing their religions.

The constitution also guarantees the right of atheistic propaganda, and the state fosters this. It is under this right that the anti-religious drive is being carried out.
